

Murree, a scenic place for tourists in Pakistan

Murree is a very scenic place in Pakistan. It is located in the Punjab province of Pakistan, some 37 miles (60 km) northeast of Rawalpindi and Islamabad. This hill station is at the altitude of around 8000 feet and become very popular tourist destination, due to its pleasant weather in summer and cold and snowy winters. Many tourist visit Murree all year round to enjoy the weather and scenic view of Murree Hills. When weather is clear, the tourist can view the snowy peaks of Kashmir and sometimes the crest of Nanga Parbat.

The main tourist attractions of Murree are its natural scenery. The other place of interests is Patriata (New Murree), which is 15 km away from the Murree hills, Ayubia, Nathiagali, Bhurban and Khanspur. These places are ideal for family's spots for picnics, mountain hiking and trekking. Whoever visits Murree by road has to come through Rawalpindi and Islamabad. The nearest airport is the Islamabad International Airport. This is very busy airport and most of the leading airlines, offer Cheap Flights to Pakistan.

The Bhurban is a unique place, with tough layout and high altitude has Golf course for visitors. The Patriata is newly developed and 15 km away from Murree Hills. This place is famous for chair lifts and also provides hiking and trekking paths for tourists to enjoy the beautiful scenery and weather. The two stage cable car can join to the Patriata top. This cable car rides attracts many tourists to enjoy the scenic views of the area. There is also road facility for visitors to travel to the top of Patriata. Another exciting place to visit in Murree is the Sozo Adventure Park. This is a recreational park located at Lower Topa, Murree, based upon jungle theme. The total area of the park is 15 acres having 27 rides, including all the allied facilities required by a park.

The other major attraction in Murree is Ayubia National Park. The Ayubia comprises four hill stations including Ghor Daka, Changla Gali, Khanspur and Khairagali. The chairlifts in Ayubia attracts many visitors. There are also shops to buy local amenities and cultural shawls, caps and necklaces. On Mall Road in Ayubia, hotels, banks and restaurants are situated for tourists.

The average high temperature of Murree is around 32 degree centigrade, therefore whenever you visit; always take warm clothes for night time. The average temperature can fall below 9 degree centigrade in Murree. In other part of the Pakistan, the average temperatures are quite high especially in summer season.

The Pakistanis, who live abroad, prefer to visit Murree in school holidays with their families and relatives. Due to the facility of online flights and hotels booking, the tourists prefer to make their own hotels booking in Murree in advance due to high demand. It is better to review the visitor's feedback before you book any hotel in Murree.

The Flights to Pakistan from London UK are easy to book, as most of the leading airlines offers competitive rates. The Turkish airline prices are very competitive and if you prefer to stop in Istanbul for few days while visiting Pakistan, it would be ideal to visit 2 countries in one price, rather than arranging a separate tour to Istanbul and book a separate Cheap Flights to Turkey.

Visitors come to Murree from different cities of Pakistan by car and buses. The people who live far away like Karachi or Quetta prefer to take Cheap Flights to Islamabad airport or through Pakistan railway to Rawalpindi Railway Station. Overall, Murree is very scenic place and people love to visit regularly to enjoy the Murree climate. Cheap Flights to Pakistan